

Nebraska Advertiser.

VOLUME XLVII

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, OCT. 10, 1902.

NUMBER 16

SHOES SHOES

SELZ SHOES THE BEST MADE

The Royal Blue Shoe for Men. We guarantee them. If not satisfactory we refund your money.

Our line of Children's, Misses' and Ladies' Shoes must be seen to be appreciated.

Largest line of Dress Goods in the city, and prices lower than elsewhere.

Underwear for Men, Women and Children at all prices.

Men's Gray Random Underwear19c; worth 35c
Men's heavy Fleece Underwear49c; worth 65c
Cotton Blankets49c
One lot of Ladies' Fleece Wrappers, worth $1.25, at98c
One lot of Ladies' Wrappers, worth 75c, at39c

Granulated Sugar, subject to market changes, now 22 pounds for $1.00.

Rice, per pound5c
Lion Coffee, per pound package94c
Rolled Oats, per package7c
Blueing, bottle, worth 5c, now3c
Good Crackers, per pound5c

Come and See Me
FOR BUSINESS.

JNO. W. RITCHEY
BROWNVILLE, NEBRASKA

FOR 30 DAYS ONLY

In order to reduce stock will sell all wall paper at just half price.

8 cent paper at4c
10 cent paper at5c
15 cent paper at8c
20 cent paper at10c
25 cent paper at13c

Above prices are for full bolts not single rolls, and are cheaper than newspapers. All present stock must be sold. Come early.

Yours for cheap wall paper,
M. T. HILL

Fine weather now.

See M T Hill for fire insurance.

We had another rain Saturday of last week.

School supplies of all kinds at Keeling's drug store.

A car load of apples was shipped to Edgar, Nebr., Thursday.

See W. W. Harris of South Auburn for Clothing and Dry Goods.

Jerry Marlatt of Brownville was a Nemaha visitor Wednesday.

For Sale—A house 16x24 and 3 lots. Price $275. Apply at this office.

Mrs. J. B. Berger is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ben Parker, at Auburn this week.

The Advertiser and the St. Louis Globe Democrat both one year for only $1.75.

A goodly number of Nemahaites went to Auburn Thursday to hear Bryan talk calamity.

Taylor Gillespie is again a resident of Nemaha. He moved into the John Crother house Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Rumbaugh, who have been visiting in Omaha, returned home Friday of last week.

The Christian aid society met with Mrs. Chas. Deurfeldt Thursday. Of course they had a good time.

Eli Knapp, who has been away from Nemaha for two or three weeks, is again with us.

The Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. have just received a nice line of guns. Call and see them.

For best assortment of Dry Goods and Shoes go to the Daylight Store of South Auburn W. W. Harris, prop'r.

Christy Bros. shipped a car load of apples from Nemaha the first of the week. They went to western Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Rowen of Iowa arrived in Nemaha Wednesday, on a visit to Mr. Rowen's brother, Rufus Rowen.

W. P. Tidrow has moved his family into the Masonic building, until recently occupied by Miss Eva Able's millinery store.

James Hiatt and wife are staying on Steve Cooper's farm, taking care of the stock and looking after the place while Steve is in Oklahoma.

Miss Helen Hoover came down from Peru last Friday, staying home until Wednesday, when she again returned to Peru, coming back Thursday morning.

Sam Littrell stepped on a board with two nails in it Tuesday night and the nails ran through the sole of his shoe and into his foot, making a very painful wound.

Ed Maxwell thinks his sprained ankle is bringing him good luck. One of the cows advertised for sale, soon to be fresh, was found Friday morning with fine twin calves—white faces.

Chas. Stillwell and Dea Williams went to Kansas City Tuesday to take in the Priests of Pallas carnival. Mr. Stillwell returned Wednesday evening and Mr. Williams Thursday evening.

Stephen Cooper and family started for Oklahoma Tuesday, to look at the country and visit Mrs. Cooper's parents, who live in Custer county. They expect to be gone about three weeks.

The Methodist ladies' aid society desire to make the following announcement as to work:

They will make comforts, finished up complete, for 35 cents.

Rag carpet, 30 cents per yard.

Stair carpet, 20 cents per yard.

The society meets every Friday afternoon, but will meet oftener if necessary to do the work.

Dr. C. M. Keeling of Springfield, South Dakota, has been nominated for the legislature by the fusionists. The doctor is a son of Dr. W. W. Keeling of Nemaha.

Now they have found a use for the buckeye nuts, heretofore considered about the most useless thing that grows. It has been found that they make excellent fuel when dried, making a quick, hot fire.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Woodward of Rock Rapids, Iowa, arrived in Nemaha Wednesday on a visit to F. L. Woodward and his mother. The gentleman is a half-brother of F. L. Woodward, but the two gentlemen had never had the pleasure of meeting before.

Joe Titus drove out to the baseball ground Sunday to watch the ball game. His horse got tired of waiting and jumped the fence, leaving the buggy and running down town with the shafts, stopping in front of the bank and waiting until he was caught. Very little damage was done.

Mrs. Ann Maxwell, administratrix of the estate of John Maxwell, deceased, will sell at public auction at the farm, one and a half miles northwest of Nemaha, on Tuesday, Oct. 21, 1902, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m., a lot of good cattle, horses, hogs, farm implements, etc., belonging to the estate.

E. J. Maxwell is walking with crutches now but says he is not playing cripple to pattern after President Roosevelt. He has a badly sprained ankle. His horse started off last Saturday while Ed was closing the gate. Ed ran and caught the lines but frightened the horse and it started to run, dragging Ed some distance before he got it stopped. In the mix-up Ed got his right ankle badly sprained.

MARRIED

At the Lutheran parsonage, South Auburn, Nebr., on Wednesday morning, October 8, 1902, by the Rev. W. Dieffenbach, Mr. Harry F. Russell to Miss Mabel D. Peabody, both of Nemaha county.

Mr. Russell is a son of W. T. Russell, and is an enterprising young farmer who has a host of friends. The bride is a daughter of Hon. V. P. Peabody and is deservedly popular. They expect to go to housekeeping in the near future. May they live long, be happy, prosperous and useful.

At the Lutheran parsonage, South Auburn, Nebr., on Wednesday evening, October 8, 1902, by the Rev. W. Dieffenbach, Mr. Emory Clark to Miss Iva M. Ross, both of Falls City, Nebr.

Mr. B. Parker, representing one of the largest Cloak and Skirt manufacturers of Cleveland, Ohio, and also one of the largest Fur manufacturers of New York City will have on sale a very extensive stock of their manufacture at

STORE OF L. H. BATTLES, NEMAHA, NEBR.

Friday and Saturday, October 17 and 18, 1902.

This is your opportunity to see and buy one of the best lines of Cloaks, Skirts and Furs on the market today and thereby save yourselves the middleman's profits by buying direct from the manufacturer.

REMEMBER, EVERY GARMENT DELIVERED ON DAYS OF SALE.